Receives 'Real Daughter' Pin

Miss Mabel Harris (left) is being presented a 'Real Daughter' Pin of the Confederacy Pin by Mrs. Emma Zastrow on the left, who is also a 'Real Daughter'. Mrs. Zastrow, of Spout Spring, is president of the Appomattox Chapter, United Daughters of the Confederacy.
Miss Mabel is the daughter of William Horsley Harris and Mrs. Agnes Payne Harris and reveals her age as 87. She is a former school teacher, and was postmistress of the Gladstone Post Office until her retirement. She lives at Gladstone with her sister, Miss Florine Harris.

UDC Presents Pin

Mrs. Emma Zastrow, president of the Appomattox Chapter of the United Daughters of the Confederacy presents Mrs. Estelle Bowles Black, on the left, with a 'Real Daughter of the Confederacy' Pin. Mrs. Zastrow was assisted by Mrs. Dave Cyrus and Mrs. O. W. Martin, Jr.
Mrs. Black who lives at Pamplin with her daughter, Mary Lee Black, gives her age as 86. She is the daughter of Richard Curt Bowles and Sallie Payne Bowles, and the wife of the Reverend W. M. Black.

UDC Meeting

The Appomattox Chapter of the United Daughters of the Confederacy met on March 16, 1972 at the County Library. Hostesses for the meeting were Mrs. A. J. Zastrow, Mrs. Dave Cyrus, Mrs. Cliff Plunkett, Mrs. Hunter Jamerson, and Mrs. B. C. Harvey.

Memorial Day Service will be held at the Confederate Cemetery May 28, 1972 with the American Legion joining the Chapter in the commemoration. At this time a monument which is being placed at the cemetery in memory of all Confederate soldiers will be dedicated.

It was decided that "Real Daughter Pins" be given to all members of the Chapter who are Real Daughters and that this be done while they are still living.

The program for the meeting was presented by Mrs. T. M. Cunningham. She gave a very interesting talk on General Wade Hampton of South Carolina.

SURPRISE BIRTHDAY AT ROCKS

Mrs. Ruth Caldwell and Mrs. Aulden Roach invited the congregation, after services Sun. night, to the church basement to have cake and ice cream in honor of Miss Cassie Baldwin's birthday, March 26. They sang happy birthday to her. She was very much surprised.

WOMAN'S CLUB TO MEET 10th

The Appomattox Woman's Club will meet Monday evening, April 10, rather than this Monday, which is a holiday. The meeting will be held at the home of Mrs. A. B. (Jeff) Norconk, the club president. Meeting time: 7:30 p.m.

APPOMATTOX H D CLUB MEETS

The Appomattox Home Demonstration Club met in the Home of Mrs. Rachel F. Lawson on March 21st with twelve present. The meeting was opened by the leader, Mrs. Louise Plunkett using the Homemakers Prayer and Creed.

We talked about the Foreign Foods Luncheon we attended at Crewe and copies of the Foreign Foods recipes were passed out.

Our hostess, Mrs. Rachel F. Lawson was dressed in a lovely red Satin Dress bought in Japan. She also had on display many interesting and beautiful curios from China, Japan and other countries including some beautiful dresses and evening wraps. We also had an interesting display from China furnished by Mrs. Young.

A delicious luncheon was enjoyed which included many of the Foreign Foods.

spirit of concern and dedication that is being exhibited to help educate our youth for these challenging days.

Mr. Holliday realized that many problems exist in any large school system and hopes that the Council will help to serve as a medium through which the P-TA's of this area can together attack problems beyond the scope a single P-TA working alone.

"We will have a panel discussion concerning discipline within the local schools," said Mr. Holliday. "It is hoped that this conference will help to inform leaders within the local schools about the handling of discipline and help to inform the delegates from the four schools as well as interested parents who might want to attend."
